

Lecture 5 (Synchronous)

I learned to view projects as part of a bigger system, not just tasks and deadlines
Organizational culture and management style can directly support or damage a project .This made me realize that even a good plan can fail if the environment and communication are weak.