Lecture 16 (Synchronous)

SWOT was presented as a structured tool to understand a situation before making decisions. I learned the difference between internal factors (strengths and weaknesses) and external factors (opportunities and threats). It helped me see how analysis supports planning instead of relying on guessing.